

Intelligence Report

QTR 4 – 1st January – 31st March 2025

This report presents intelligence from the public, received by Healthwatch Bolton from 1st January to 31st March 2025. Intelligence is received from our Information, Advice and Guidance (IAG) enquiries, Community Engagement activities, from our website via our 'Have Your Say' webform, and from comments on social media direct to us.

You will note we have added a column for organisations to provide us with some feedback on the issues/feedback raised. We would be grateful if you would provide us with a response to these, so we can be assured that the issues are being considered. We have also added positive feedback ,highlighted in green, and would be grateful if system leaders would share this with the relevant department leaders.

A lot of the intelligence we receive is anonymous, with the patient not wishing to share their identity/contact details with us. When this happens, we cannot follow up their concerns, but we believe it is important to include all this intelligence in our reports, so commissioners and service providers are aware of people's experiences of using health and care services.

Please share any feedback with Julie Darbyshire: julie@healthwatchbolton.co.uk

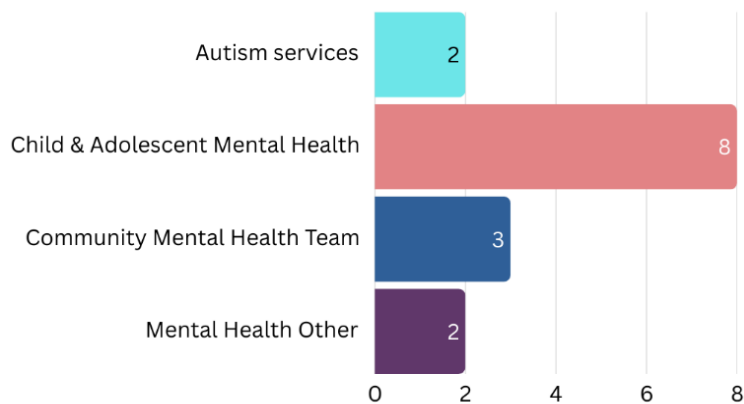

Thank you

2/1/25	IMP 393	Mental Health Services	Client is struggling to get mental health support in Bolton. Not even social services safeguarding or mental health advocacy will help.	Signposting information provided
4/1/25	IMP 394	Kearsley Medical Centre GP	The client is frustrated with healthcare providers who fail to address complex, long-term health issues holistically. The client has multiple autoimmune diseases, including Crohn's and ME, and feels their symptoms are not fully recognised. Despite having concerning blood test results, their GP only treats individual issues without considering the bigger picture. The client feels unheard by health professionals and has found more effective care when going private. They mention a GP who listened but has since moved on. 6/1/25	IMP 395	GMMH/CAMHS	Client's friend, who lives in Scotland is the grandmother of four children who live in Bolton. The youngest of the four children was referred to CAMHS by his school after he made a remark along the lines of "I don't want to be here anymore." The grandmother wants to speak in confidence with the clinician involved in her grandson's care because she is aware of other serious issues that may help in his treatment. However, grandmother wants to be able to raise the issues without the grandson's mother knowing she has shared information.	HWB sought Advice from NHS Bolton, case resolved

6/1/25	IMP 396	NWAS Patient Transport	Comment from client: "Patient transport to and from Withington Hospital. On some occasions they have been extremely last minute meaning I have missed long awaited appointments twice and barely made it before appointments cancelled. Regarding return, I had to wait as long as 5 hours to be picked up and be returned!! 2 hospital staff had to stay after shift so I wasn't in danger from seizures on my own and the whole hospital was closed. This left me in dire pain, no fluids and no food. Not Good!.	Anonymous	NWAS to note

I have been advised to contact my GP practice for an alternative which has happened previously, and I have been given a different brand that has proven difficult to use due to the physical size of the patch (they don't stay attached). The hospital doctors didn't read about the interactions of Tegretol beforehand. I was in a long post ictal state and I struggled to use my phone to look it up. My GPs were happy to prescribe it as Tegretol was on my repeat prescription list. My neurologist at the time didn't look into my medications, or medication history. 29/1/25	IMP 410	Bolton Hospital	Client comment: "I spent quite some time in Royal Bolton Hospital last year having been diagnosed with Crohn's disease. Every few days I was moved to a different ward in between the hours of 02.00am and 04.00am, which I found very distressing as it disturbed me and other patients on the wards I was on, and the ones I was transferred to. 			ready for me, I had already been in hospital for 3 weeks by then. When I finally got on the female ward I was told the bed had been empty since the afternoon of the day before so I have no idea why I went on the men's ward. The doctors kept contradicting themselves with my medication which I found very frustrating. The last time I was in hospital (the same one) was in November 24 for a stoma reversal. They didn't change my commode for 12 hours even though I asked 3 times as I was in a side ward and was commode dependent. I asked for a fan as the side room was very warm, and the one they brought me was thick with dust. It was so bad I took a photograph of it. Some of the nurses spent a lot of time chatting to each other and not seeing to the patients."

17/2/25	IMP 438	Salford Royal Hospital	The client and their daughter were directed to A&E after contacting 111. They experienced delays and poor communication, with a dismissive nurse and confusion about the correct waiting area. By 3 a.m., the daughter was in severe pain and distress. 20/2/25	IMP 440	Kildonan House GP	The client requested their late relative's medical records from Kildonan House and Bolton Hospital. While the hospital records were easily obtained, Kildonan House has consistently failed to respond to emails or return phone calls. Despite providing proof of identity and explaining the legal basis for the request, the practice has either ignored or poorly handled the request, showing ignorance of the rules governing the disclosure of records. After several months, Kildonan House sought advice from an Information Governance Officer, who confirmed the request was valid, but the practice then decided to consult the MDU. The individual has made a formal complaint to Kildonan House, but it remains unacknowledged. They are frustrated with the lack of progress and are considering legal action, though they would prefer to avoid it.	Advice offered but no further contact from client. 21/2/25	IMP 443	Bolton Hospital	The client is frustrated with the mismanagement of their 95-year-old relative's treatment at Bolton Hospital. The father-in-law, who has severe mobility issues and mild dementia, was referred by his nursing home GP to a dermatologist for a growth on his ear. Although the appointment was quickly scheduled, subsequent visits have been plagued by issues such as confusion with the ambulance service, missing medical records, and staff not being informed of his mobility issues, which led to him not being admitted. He was sent back untreated to his nursing home. Additionally, the person received a parking fine for waiting too long in a drop-off zone while awaiting resolution of the bed issue. A new surgical appointment was scheduled, and after some follow-up, the hospital assured the person that they would consult with the relevant staff and call back with a care plan. 21/2/25	IMP 443	Bolton Hospital A & E	Client comment: "Triaged quickly as NHS 111 had already rung through. Took bloods and ECG then lost the ECG. Long wait in the waiting room to see a doctor then an even longer wait for a bed. Waited over 14 Hours. Only got admitted into resus after nearly passing out in the waiting area. Overnight stay in resus on a trolley until a bed was made available in a cubicle. Eventually admitted to CCU. Could not fault the staff at all. "	Anonymous
24/2/25	IMP 446	Crompton Health Centre	The client had seen their doctor repeatedly at their local practice, but after their doctor retired, the new doctors were unfamiliar with their medical history. They were told that their pain was partly due to anxiety and that it was related to being unable to walk. Frustrated with the lack of attention, the client paid privately for a consultation, where they were properly listened to. It was discovered that they had severe swelling and fluid buildup in their knees and legs, leading to new treatment and home care. The individual feels the doctors at their practice made assumptions based on their existing condition, rather than properly investigating the issue, and believes that just because they have a past condition, it doesn't mean that's the cause every time. 4/3/25	IMP 472	Halliwell GP Surgery	Client comment: "The Halliwell surgery so far so good satisfactory service never use emergency or hospital services, but small issue we all are having. I took my daughter to the surgery when she was not well and suffering from coughing, headache high temperature the doctor diagnosed her was given no medicine was sick for 2 weeks and unable to go to school. It is frustrating suffer for 2 weeks and not getting any medicine. Can't go to school also".	Anonymous
4/3/25	IMP 473	Dr Mirza & Partners GP	Client comment: I went to my GP practice appointment for an appointment to have a breast examination I specifically requested a female GP.& accidently got the time mixed up with another appointment and missed my allocated time, (my sons had been poorly and I had been busy caring for them) the receptionist on the front desk was very understanding however another receptionist sitting behind was quite blunt and would not allow me to see the GP I was only offered a telephone call. I tried to explain that I need an examination without going into too much detail as there was a queue and I did not want to share my own personal sensitive information to other people waiting. The receptionist sitting at the back said I could not see the GP and it would only be offered a phone appointment I went away with a telephone appointment.	Anonymous	NHS Bolton to note

			The GP called me back and I explained the situation, the GP was very kind and understanding and explained that she would have seen me despite me being late if she had known and that the receptionist should have let her know that I was there. The GP said that she would raise this with the member of staff. This particular GP was very kind to me and helpful however some of the reception staff can be very unempathetic".

The carers have looked after the deceased for 18 years and are now distraught with grief, but cannot find any support from CHC etc. The client has already raised the matter themselves but wanted HWB to be aware of how carers are being treated Has personal health budget and direct payments from the Council. He died 3 weeks ago - been unable to get any help for the bereaved carers. Nothing on the website Ansaphone for CHC – won't speak and will only emails and signpost to the broker who makes the payments and they don't respond either. They also said needs to contact the insurer and the insurer said speak to the lawyers. Carers originally worked for Bolton Hospital Client just wanted to make us aware and is going to escalate to the ICB to say they need to support carers. When the person dies nothing happens and the parents and carers are left with no information - have to sort out redundancies to pay etc. Bolton Council have been fine but it is the CHC that is at fault. He wrote to the CHC;2 weeks ago but heard nothing back. Also had other carers contacting him, from families where a child has died who are left bereaved and bewildered.		recipient of CHC dies and the CHC payments end. 14/3/25	IMP 482	Kildonan House GP	The Patient's representative contacted HWB about the NHS 'mistreating' his relative. Patient prescribed medication for angina but GP now says patient does not have angina and the meds he has been on could have made him pre-diabetic to which he is. Also concerned about physical impact on him – he has painful joints and a cyst on the knee, The GP has also failed to provide an interpreter and to provide timely referrals to specialists including mental health support. He also needs to see the outcome of tests he has had which have not been shared with him, to check for the presence of a brain tumour. He also needs advice on welfare benefits. Responses from Providers and Commissioners

Thank you for your continued feedback through the Intelligence Reports. We greatly value the insights shared, which play a key role in shaping and improving the care we provide.

All feedback is reviewed through our established processes, including PALS and Complaints, and is regularly discussed at the Quality Patient Experience Forum. We are committed to acting on the themes raised and ensuring that learning is shared and service improvements are made where needed.

We also recognise the importance of acknowledging anonymous feedback and are exploring ways to provide a meaningful response in these cases.

Please be assured that all feedback is taken seriously and used to inform the design and delivery of services, ensuring they meet the needs of our patients.

Thanks

Rebecca
